

A dramatic scene of a stone wall with a waterfall and a path leading through it. The wall is made of rough, weathered stone and has a large, dark, triangular shadow cast across it. A waterfall flows down the center of the wall, creating white foam as it falls. A path of water flows through the bottom of the wall, leading towards the viewer. The overall tone is dark and moody, with a focus on texture and light.

PURSUIING THE PROMISE

IT AIN'T FAIR,
BUT YOU AIN'T DUN

Joshua 14:1-5 (NIV)

“Now these are the areas the Israelites received as an inheritance in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel allotted to them. Their inheritances were assigned by lot to the nine and a half tribes, as the Lord had commanded through Moses. Moses had granted the two and a half tribes their inheritance east of the Jordan but had not granted the Levites an inheritance among the rest, for Joseph’s descendants had become two tribes—Manasseh and Ephraim. The Levites received no share of the land but only towns to live in, with pasturelands for their flocks and herds. So the Israelites divided the land, just as the Lord had commanded Moses.”

Joshua 14:6-12 (MSG)

The people of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal. Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite spoke: "You'll remember what God said to Moses the man of God concerning you and me back at Kadesh Barnea. I was forty years old when Moses the servant of God sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land. And I brought back an honest and accurate report. My companions who went with me discouraged the people, but I stuck to my guns, totally with God, my God. That was the day that Moses solemnly promised, 'The land on which your feet have walked will be your inheritance, you and your children's, forever. Yes, you have lived totally for God.'

Joshua 14:6-12 (MSG)

Now look at me: God has kept me alive, as he promised. It is now forty-five years since God spoke this word to Moses, years in which Israel wandered in the wilderness. And here I am today, eighty-five years old! I'm as strong as I was the day Moses sent me out. I'm as strong as ever in battle, whether coming or going. So give me this hill country that God promised me. You yourself heard the report, that the Anakim were there with their great fortress cities. If God goes with me, I will drive them out, just as God said."

Joshua 14:13-14 (NIV)

“Then Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and gave him Hebron as his inheritance. So Hebron has belonged to Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite ever since, because he followed the Lord, the God of Israel, wholeheartedly.”

1 Peter 1:3-5 (NIV)

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy-he has given us new birth into a living hope-through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade.-This inheritance is kept in heaven for you,-who through faith are shielded by God's power-until the coming of the salvation-that is ready to be revealed in the last time."
